Rates of Carmen, settled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, for the City of LONDON.

THAT you may take the better Notice of these Carmen, you must observe their Number and Mark; for every one that is Licenced has a Brass with the Number on it, and branded with the City Arms upon the Shafts of the Cart. For if any Person works without such a Number and Mark, he shall forfeit for every Offence 13 s. 4 s. Also,

if any Carman carry any Coals in his Cart, without a good and lawful Bushel, and good and lawful Sacks, agreeing with the Bushel kept at Guildhall, and Sea-Coal-Meters Sacks, he shall forfeit for each offence 10 s. So if any Carman put into his Cart any more than one Horse for the Carriage of any Merchandize, except up a hill, or with Timber, Stone, or other Commodities, where the Load cannot be divided, he shall pay for his first Offence 1 s. for the second 20 s. and for every other 30 s. and the supernumerary Horse to be impounded until the Penalty be paid.

Likewise, if any Drayman, or Carman, that drives, shall ride thereon, or drive his Horse a Trot, through, or in the Street, he shall be carried before a Justice of Peace to be dealt with according to the Offence, and the Horses, or Mares, shall be carried to the Green-yard.

Or if any Carman be taken not leading his Horse by the Head, he shall forfeit for every Offence 2 s.

Those Merchants, or others, that have occasion to use Carts, are free to choose what Carts they please; except such as stand for Wharf-work, Tackle-work, and Crain-work; which are to stand in order, and to be taken in turn.

So if any Person refuse to pay the Rates following, the Carman is to appeal to the Governors of Christ's Hospital, or to any Justice of the Peace, where he may be relieved.

Or if any Gentleman, or other, shall cause any Carman to stay with his loaden Carr, above half an hour before he unloads, and the Carman being willing to help to unload the same; such Merchants, or other Persons, shall pay after the Rate of Twelve-pence per Hour, after the first half Hour, for his Attendance.

So when any Carman stands with his empty Carr, next to any Goods that are to be loaden, he shall on the first demand load the same without any Delay, or bargaing for other Wages than is appointed in the following Rates; and if he shall refuse to load, he shall pay for his first Offence 5 s. and for every other Offence 10 s. and the next Cart, in order, that shall be willing, shall be at liberty to load the same.

Likewise, no Carman is to come to any of the Wharfs, or Places of keeping turn between the Bridge and Tower-wharf, before five of the Clock in the Morning in the Summer Time, or before seven of the Clock in the Morning in the Winter Time, unless a Merchant, or any other Person, have an extraordinary Occasion to require to the contrary.

Also, the Carman for the following Rates is to help to Load and Unload; and if any Carman shall take for his Labour and Hire above the Rates following, limited and appointed, and the same be duly proved by the Testimony of one, or more Credible Witness, or Witnesses, before the Lord Mayor, or any two of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, such Carman shall suffer Imprisonment for the space of 21 Days, without Bail or Mainprize, according to the Statute in that behalf, and shall undergo such farther Pains and Penalties, as by the Law may be inflicted for the said Offence.

And if any Carman shall refuse to appear upon the Summons of the President and Governours of Christ's Hospital, he shall be punished at the Discretion of the said President and Governours, either by Fine, Penalty, or Suspension. L 2 Com-

Complaints of the Abuses of Carmen may be made every Tuesday at two a Clock in the Afternoon, to the Court sitting in Christ's Hospital; where telling the Number of the Cart, the Carman's Name will be found out, and he punished.

All Carmen working with a Cart in the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, may demand and take for every Load the Rates hereafter following, that is to say, RO'M any Wharf between the Tower and London-bridge, Tower-street, Gracechurch-street, Fanchurch-street, Bishopsgate-street within, to Cornhill, and Places of like Distance up the Hill, with 18 Hundred Weight, not exceeding 20 Hundred Weight, 2 s.

ness, giving him the Number of the Boat; and the Clerk will Summon him to attend at the Hall, and answer to the Complaint; where you will be sure to have Justice done you, and the Person punished as the Fault deserves.

The RULES of Hackney-Coachmen and Chair-men, with their Rates, according to the Act of Parliament.

THIS Act was made in the Ninth Year of her late Majesty's Reign. The Commissioners are authoriz'd, under the Great Seal, to Licence 800 Hackney-Coaches, to drive within the Parishes and Places compriz'd within the Weekly Bills of Mortality.

Each Coach to be mark'd with its Number on Tin-Plates, of the Breadth of $6\frac{1}{2}$ Inches, and the Length of 9 Inches, to be fix'd on each Side the Coach, and every Proprietor to pay the Weekly Sum of 5 s. by Monthly Payments, to the Receivers of the Office: Also to be subject to the following Orders.

One Fourth of the 800 Coaches to ply every Sunday, and any one plying that is not in his Turn, forfeits Five Pounds, to be recover'd by any One Person that will sue for it.

No Person can have more than Two Licences: For the Purchase of a Licence there is to be paid Fifty Pounds Fine. If any Hackney-Coachman uses the Trade without a Licence, he forfeits Five Pounds.

Likewise

Rules for Coachmen and Chairmen. 117

"Likewise no Person shall use another Man's Figure, or deface his own, upon the Penalty of Five Pounds, one Moiety to the Informer.

No Horse, Gelding, or Mare, under 14 Hands in Height, shall be used for this Purpose.

If any Coachman, or Chairman, shall refuse to go at, or exact more for his Hire, than these Rates following, he shall for every such Offence forfeit 40 Shillings.

N. B. Hackney-chairmen are obliged to go the same Distance for Eighteen-pence, which the Coaches perform for a Shilling.

And it is also further declared, that no Hackney-coachman shall take, for his Hire, more than one Shilling for any Distance, not exceeding one Mile and a half, and Eighteen-pence for any greater Distance, not exceeding two Miles.

And Hackney-chairmen, by the said Act, shall not take more than one Shilling for any Distance, not exceeding one Mile, and 1 s. 6 d. for any Distance not exceeding a Mile and a half.

It is appointed that no Hackney-coachman shall presume to take for his Hire, in or about the City of London and Westminster, more for one Day of 12 Hours, than 10 s.

And for one Hour, 1 s. 6 d.

And for every Hour after the first, 1 s.

For the better knowing the Distances between the most noted Places in the City and Suburbs of London and Westminster, the Commissioners have caused the same to be measur'd.

Note, The Mile according to the Statute of Henry VII. is eight Furlongs, or 5280 Feet: then if the Step, or Pace of a Man in walking, be five Foot, 1056 of such Paces, will be an exact Mile.

There are in all, in England and Wales, together, 25 Cities, 750 great Towns, called Market-Towns, 9913 Parishes, some of 40 or 50 Miles Circuit, 61 Forests, and about 300 Parks

It appears from the Observations and Calculations of the late George King, Esq; published by Dr. D'avenant, that the Rents of the Lands, by the Produce of the late Taxes, seem to be near 10 Millions per Annum; and that the Houses (not let with the Lands) amount to 1 Millions per Annum: And all other Hereditaments to about 2 Millions more; in all, 14 Millions: So that the People and Territories of the King of England alone, may be valued for Wealth and Strength at above one half of those of France. And since the whole Annual Expence of the King of England's Subjects is about 50 Millions, it will require but an 8th part thereof to maintain 100,000 Foot, 30,000 Horse, 40,000 Seamen, and to defray all other Charges of the Government Ordinary and Extraordinary.

England without Wales, is divided into 6 Circuits, allotted to the 12 Judges to hold Assizes twice a Year. It is also divided by the King's Justices in Eyre of the Forrefts, and by the Kings of Arms, into North and South; that is, all Counties upon the North and South-side of Trent.
